CONTENTS.

JANUARY. — Editorial, 1; The star that guides, 2; Reminiscences, 4; Roxy's experience in auxiliaries, 9; Mission wheels, 11; What wait ye for, 13; Correspondence, 14; My India letters, 14; Midnapore life, 15; On the way, 17; Workers in council, 21; Central Maine, 21; Rhode Island, 22; Ohio, 23; Shenandoah Valley, 23; Notes and gleanings, 24; Children's niche, 26; Lambs of Jesus, 26; Another missionary meeting, 26; Questions on India, 30; Letters from bands, 31; Japanese breaches of promise, 31; Contributions, 32.

MARCH. — Three centuries, etc., 33; Go and tell, 35; Reminiscences, 36; The Hindu, who is he? 40; To western workers, 41; The woman's interest in our Q. M's, 43; Myrtle Hall, 45; Why we cannot form an auxiliary, 46; Correspondence, 47; Letter from Balasore, 47; Midnapore life, 48; From Nellie Cole, etc., 49; Out in camp, 51; To the ladies of the F. B. M. S., 53; India addresses, 54; Workers in council, 55; Western Maine, 55; New Hampshire, 55; Vermont, 56; New auxiliaries, 56; Notes and gleanings, 57; Children's niche, 59; Our duty, 59; Bessie's golden crown, 59; Letters from the bands, 62; A sad, strange wedding, 62; A famous temple, 63; Contributions, 63.

MAY. — Editorial paragraphs, 65; What we need to do, 67; Here and there, 70; Reminiscences, 71; The extent of the field, 73; Do not all church-members do the same? 74; Ways and means, 76; Correspondence, 77; Cheering intelligence, 77; Miss Hattie Phillips' Journal, 78; My India letters, 80; Gleanings, 81; Midnapore life, 83; Storer normal school, 84; Workers in council, 86; Western Maine, 86; Eastern Maine, 87; Kansas, 87; New auxiliaries, 87; Notes and gleanings, 88; Children's niche, 90; Our little sisters, 90; The children's missionary, 91; The May party, 93; Questions on India, 94; The Arab's proof, 94; Letters from the bands, 95; Contributions, 95.

JULY. — Editorial, 97; "By this conquer," 98; The Master's work and ours, 100; Reminiscences, 101; Bible exercise, 104; The languages of the Hindus, 105; Notes from the South-land, 106; Correspondence, 107; Miss Hattie Phillips' Journal, — continued, 107; April sunshine, 108; Our zenana teachers, 111; Dantoon, 113; Soroh, 114; Aniversary-dedication, 114; To friends in Ohio, 116; Workers in council, 118; New England convention, 118; Rhode Island, 119; Michigan, 120; Ohio, 121; Notes and gleanings, 121; Children's niche, 123; The four rupees, 123; A scrap-album, 123; Paper festival, 124; The egg dance, 125; An acrostic for "little seed-sowers," 126; Contributions, 127.

SEPTEMBER. — Editorial, 129; What can be the matter? 130; Reminiscences, 132; Dedication of Myrtle Hall, 134; Foreign Asiatic languages used in India, 138; Correspondence, 140; From Rev. and Mrs. J. Phillips, 140; A first visit to a zenana, 143; A note from Miss Hooper, 145; The glimmer in the dark, 146; "More and more until the perfect day, 148; Workers in council, 151; Maine, 151; Vermont, 152; Michigan, 153; Wisconsin, 154; Minnesota, 154; Notes and gleanings, 155; Children's niche, 156; The heathen child's plea, 156; Paka Dale, 156; Good cheer from mission bands, 158; Contributions, 159.

NOVEMBER. — Editorial, 161; What came of it, 164; Reminiscences, 167; China's millions, 173; Correspondence, 174; Sunshine and shadows, 174; Value of medical knowledge, 175; A rainy season trip, 177; From Miss Hooper, 178; Pilgrims from Poori, 180; Invalids "abroad," 181; Appropriations for 1880, 184; Workers in council, 185; Nova Scotia, 185; Province of Quebec, 185; Minnesota, 186; Michigan, 186; Notes and gleanings, 187; Children's niche, 188; The penny ye meant to gi'e, 188; Susie's speculation, 188; Girls in China, 191; Contributions, 191; Supplement, including Annual Reports; Prospectus of MISSIONARY HELPER for 1880, see third page cover.

CONTENTS.

JANUARY. — Editorial, 1; The star that guides, 2; Reminiscences, 4; Roxy's experience in auxiliaries, 9; Mission wheels, 11; What wait ye for, 13; Correspondence, 14; My India letters, 14; Midnapore life, 15; On the way, 17; Workers in council, 21; Central Maine, 21; Rhode Island, 22; Ohio, 23; Shenandoah Valley, 23; Notes and gleanings, 24; Children's niche, 26; Lambs of Jesus, 26; Another missionary meeting, 26; Questions on India, 30; Letters from bands, 31; Japanese breaches of promise, 31; Contributions, 32.

MARCH. — Three centuries, etc., 33; Go and tell, 35; Reminiscences, 36; The Hindu, who is he? 40; To western workers, 41; The woman's interest in our Q. M's, 43; Myrtle Hall, 45; Why we cannot form an auxiliary, 46; Correspondence, 47; Letter from Balasore, 47; Midnapore life, 48; From Nellie Cole, etc., 49; Out in camp, 51; To the ladies of the F. B. M. S., 53; India addresses, 54; Workers in council, 55; Western Maine, 55; New Hampshire, 55; Vermont, 56; New auxiliaries, 56; Notes and gleanings, 57; Children's niche, 59; Our duty, 59; Bessie's golden crown, 59; Letters from the bands, 62; A sad, strange wedding, 62; A famous temple, 63; Contributions, 63.

MAY. — Editorial paragraphs, 65; What we need to do, 67; Here and there, 70; Reminiscences, 71; The extent of the field, 73; Do not all church-members do the same? 74; Ways and means, 76; Correspondence, 77; Cheering intelligence, 77; Miss Hattie Phillips' Journal, 78; My India letters, 80; Gleanings, 81; Midnapore life, 83; Storer normal school, 84; Workers in council, 86; Western Maine, 86; Eastern Maine, 87; Kansas, 87; New auxiliaries, 87; Notes and gleanings, 88; Children's niche, 90; Our little sisters, 90; The children's missionary, 91; The May party, 93; Questions on India, 94; The Arab's proof, 94; Letters from the bands, 95; Contributions, 95.

JULY. — Editorial, 97; "By this conquer," 98; The Master's work and ours, 100; Reminiscences, 101; Bible exercise, 104; The languages of the Hindus, 105; Notes from the South-land, 106; Correspondence, 107; Miss Hattie Phillips' Journal, — continued, 107; April sunshine, 108; Our zenana teachers, 111; Dantoon, 113; Soroh, 114; Aniversary-dedication, 114; To friends in Ohio, 116; Workers in council, 118; New England convention, 118; Rhode Island, 119; Michigan, 120; Ohio, 121; Notes and gleanings, 121; Children's niche, 123; The four rupees, 123; A scrap-album, 123; Paper festival, 124; The egg dance, 125; An acrostic for "little seed-sowers," 126; Contributions, 127.

SEPTEMBER. — Editorial, 129; What can be the matter? 130; Reminiscences, 132; Dedication of Myrtle Hall, 134; Foreign Asiatic languages used in India, 138; Correspondence, 140; From Rev. and Mrs. J. Phillips, 140; A first visit to a zenana, 143; A note from Miss Hooper, 145; The glimmer in the dark, 146; "More and more until the perfect day, 148; Workers in council, 151; Maine, 151; Vermont, 152; Michigan, 153; Wisconsin, 154; Minnesota, 154; Notes and gleanings, 155; Children's niche, 156; The heathen child's plea, 156; Paka Dale, 156; Good cheer from mission bands, 158; Contributions, 159.

NOVEMBER. — Editorial, 161; What came of it, 164; Reminiscences, 167; China's millions, 173; Correspondence, 174; Sunshine and shadows, 174; Value of medical knowledge, 175; A rainy season trip, 177; From Miss Hooper, 178; Pilgrims from Poori, 180; Invalids "abroad," 181; Appropriations for 1880, 184; Workers in council, 185; Nova Scotia, 185; Province of Quebec, 185; Minnesota, 186; Michigan, 186; Notes and gleanings, 187; Children's niche, 188; The penny ye meant to gi'e, 188; Susie's speculation, 188; Girls in China, 191; Contributions, 191; Supplement, including Annual Reports; Prospectus of MISSIONARY HELPER for 1880, see third page cover.